B Health and Sports Day is an interesting traditional event in Japan. I'm interested in finding out about it. Aiko, can you tell me about this special day?
Of course, Dan. In my village, we always have lots of exciting races and games. My race was very tiring! Did you win?
No, I didn't. I was disappointed. I was surprised, too, because I'm a very good, fast runner. But there are lots of amazing athletes here today! There's a band here today, too. Their music is very entertaining.
That's right! It's relaxing to sit in the sun and listen to music. There's some great traditional dancing later, too. I'm very excited about that!

B Children all over the world enjoy playing games together. A popular children's game in Mexico is The Blind Hen.
Playing this game is lots of fun. You start by choosing one child to be the hen and covering their eyes so that they can't see. Turning the child around and around makes the game more difficult.
It's time for the hen to start finding and tagging the other children.
The other children enjoy running around and calling the hen. Saying things like "Come and get me!" or "I'm over here!" makes the game more exciting. After tagging all the children, the hen can have a rest and another child can try being the blind hen.

My grandpa is from Guatemala. In Guatemala, lots of men can crochet. My grandpa can crochet beautiful bags and hats. My grandparents moved to the U.S. in 1970. In those days, lots of people could crochet, knit, and sew. My grandma could knit when she was a little girl. She couldn't crochet then, but she can crochet now.

When my mum was a little girl, she couldn't knit or crochet. She couldn't sew then either, but she can sew now. She can make amazing dresses! I can't knit or sew, but I'm learning to crochet. A year ago, I couldn't make many things, but now I can make lots of things!

Piñatas are traditional in Mexico.
When you make a piñata, you need a balloon and some papier mâché. A piñata can be any shape. If you use a round balloon, you get a round piñata.
Put papier mâché (paper and glue) on the balloon. When the papier mâché is dry, it stays in the shape of the balloon. Now you can pop the balloon!
Cut a small hole in the piñata and fill the piñata with candy. When the piñata is full of candy, it's ready for you to decorate it with paint or colored paper.
When people have parties, they often have piñatas. The piñata is hung from a tree or post and children hit it with sticks. If the piñata breaks, lots of candy falls out!

Look, Luis. I'm making a piñata.
Do you have lots of glue? You need lots of glue when you make a piñata.
I know. You need lots of paper when you make a piñata, too. If you mix glue and paper together, you get papier mâché.
Papier mâché is great. When you put it on a balloon, it dries in the shape of the balloon.
I know. If you use a long balloon, you get a long piñata. Piñatas look better when you paint them. Let's paint this one red.
Oh! Look at the table. You make a big mess when you make piñatas!

Robbie was looking for his pet grasshoppers, Hoppy and Happy, but their jar was empty.
Dad was watering the plants in the garden.

"Were you working in the garden all morning, Dad?" Robbie asked.

"Yes, I was," said Dad.

Emma was playing in the garden.

"Did you open this jar, Emma?"

Robbie asked.

"Yes," said Emma. "I'm sorry! I wasn't looking for grasshoppers. I was looking for a cookie!"

Then Robbie saw Hoppy and Happy!
The grasshoppers were sitting on a leaf. Robbie was very happy!
